PARA's Resident of the Month for January 2010

I am back in Edmonton doing an Obs/Gyn residency after living in just about every province in Canada, which makes it difficult for me to know where home is: Victoria, Montreal, Saint John, Calgary, Twillingate... That being said, I'm pretty happy in Edmonton. I graduated from the University of Alberta Medical School after completing a BA (Hons) in English Literature at McGill. You never know when a specialization in Dracula and vampires will come in handy! I love to travel off the beaten path, to sleep, to read novels, to sleep, to have dinner parties, to sleep, to enjoy a glass of vino tinto, to travel, to garden (good post call exercise and relaxation), and to have a laugh with friends and family.

A fellow resident had this to say:

"Juliette was one of the residents during our PGY1 rotation on OBS/GYN. Despite the long hours and weekend overnight call, she was always this cheerful breath of fresh air regardless of how overworked she was. She is great to be work with, providing teaching to students and underling residents without being condescending. She's great with her patients and thorough with her plans. If I had a womb, I'd let her deliver my babies in a second.

Oddly, she actually has worked as Staff in Emergency, but re-entered [residency] for a love of Obs/Gyn. You'd think being thrown into the mix again would cause cold and bitterness, and you'd be wrong. She still keeps kicking ass and taking names, and for that she deserves to be ROM."
